Class Teacher: Ms. M. Kumutha Rani

Date: 11th August, 2021 (Wednesday)

Timing: 10:40 a.m. - 11:20 a.m.

The Virtual Class Assembly of XI – C was held on 11th August 2021 on the Theme “How School Fosters Human Excellence Through Conscience”.

The Assembly commenced with the recitation of the Gayathri Mantra followed by the Welcome Address.

The Students showcased their talents and brought out the essence of the theme based on Conscience, through various performances.

ROLE PLAY highlighted how the School endeavours to inculcate moral values among the students by performing the Morning Havan and also including subjects like Moral Science in the Curriculum.

INTERVIEW - A live rendezvous with the students depicted how the School lays emphasis on following discipline and hygiene for creating a safe environment in School, especially during the COVID. Visual Props like PPTs and Images were used to make the event more attractive and effective.

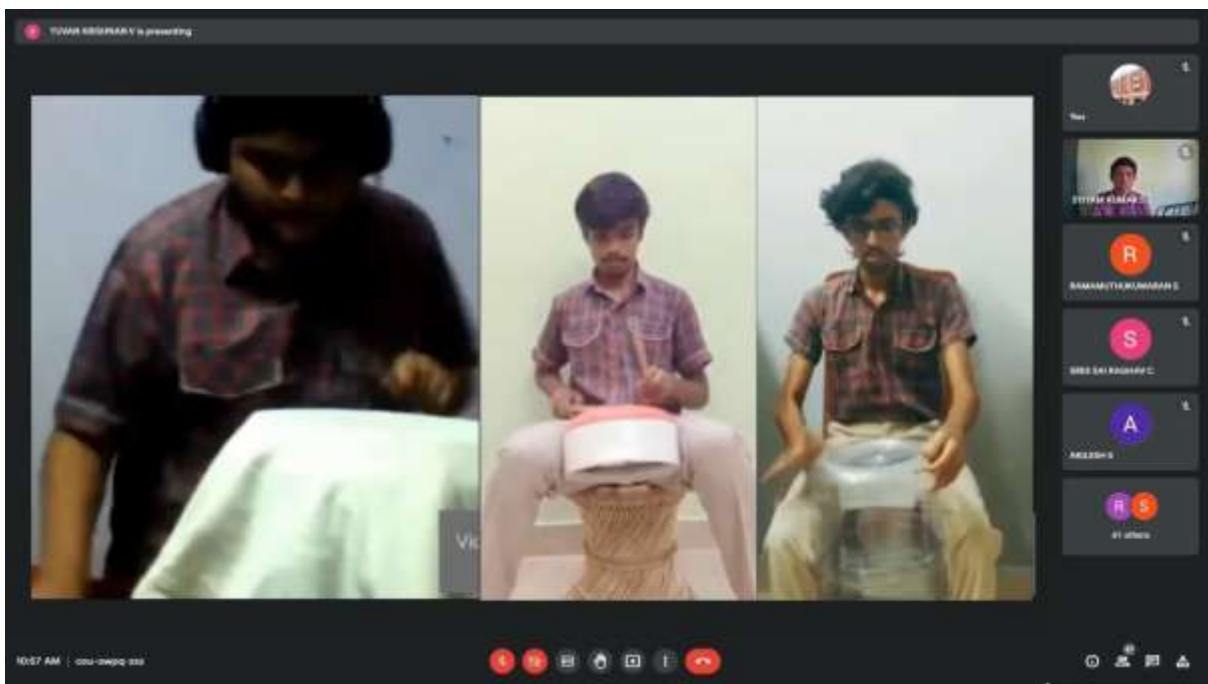

The creative artists of the Class presented JUNK MUSIC by taking things used in daily life. The simple yet innovated music added novelty to the programme and also sensitized the students on making Best Out Of Waste and keeping the environment clean.

A Dazzling fusion Dance including Western and Classical Dance forms based on thematic songs focussed on “Karma” and Spirituality as an important means to develop one’s Conscience.

The Assembly concluded with the Vote of Thanks followed by Shanthi Paat.
