Objective: To practice critical thinking and writing skills by analyzing and reviewing a book.

Instructions:

1. Choose a book that you have recently read and would like to review.

2. Begin your review by providing some basic information about the book, including the title, author, and a brief summary of the plot.

3. Evaluate the book. Consider the following questions:

- Did you enjoy the book? Why or why not?
- Was the book well-written? Why or why not?
- Did the book effectively convey its message or theme? Why or why not?
- What was the most memorable part of the book? Why?

4. Support your evaluation with examples from the book. Include at least two specific examples that support your evaluation.

5. Conclude your review with a recommendation. Would you recommend this book to others? Why or why not?

6. Format: Your book review should be written in paragraph form and should be between 100-200 words.

7. Submission: Submit your book review to your English teacher by the due date specified.
