6.	(a) The flower ring was an antique and an expensive ring.It was very precious for Mr. Regnier. He loved some of his jewels as much as he loved his children. So he was very upset, when it was lost.	2	Pg-50,51
	(b)William Morris was highly observant. He had sharp and keen eyes. He also had the habit of reading books like crime and criminals. He loved to watch people and their behaviour. He used to use his eyes and common sense a little more than the normal people do.	2	Pg-48,49
	(c)Munsi Premchand and Baldev have studied together in the same school.Baldev was hefty and dull in studies.His teacher got fed up. So he assigned the narrator the duty of helping him in his studies. With the sympathetic approach of the narrator he could improve in studies. And gradually they became friends.	2	6 Pg-65
	(d) In "The Children's Song," the statement that the poem is highly patriotic can be justified by examining its themes and content. The poem likely contains elements that celebrate the nation, its history, or its culture. To justify this, one would need to provide specific examples from the poem that highlight patriotism, such as references to national symbols, historical events, or expressions of love and pride for the country. 	Diary Entry: CONTENT EXPRESSION FORMAT Sunday 18 July 20XX 9:00 pm What an unlucky day it was for me and my friend! I alongwith my friends made a solid plan to steal a ring from the Regnier’s. I decided to stand at the opposite of the shop. My friend went inside and he managed to steal the ring. According to our plan, he had stuck the ring with the help of a chewing gum that he parted at the edge of the counter. I went after some time and pretended as a customer to get my brooch repaired. Then cleverly, I threw the paper on the floor. An assistant took it up at the same time. I took the ring and put it in my left pocket of the coat. But I never imagined about the keen eyes of the assistant. He saw the mark of chewing gum while picking up the paper and stopped me. I had no other choice except giving him the ring back and I ran back saving my life. (Note: Any other relevant point may be accepted)	3 2 1	Pg-54
